UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

	Exploring	Getting Started	Going Deeper	Centering on Christ
 A life of Worship	I attend worship when a friend invites me, it is convenient, or I feel a need.	I attend worship regularly, but I am growing to realize that I must attend to God every day	I attend worship regularly and set aside time daily for connecting with God.	I worship God in the ways I work, play, and engage others in relationships; all of life.
 A life of Hospitality	I am curiously drawn to the Christians who graciously accept me as if I belong with them already	I am called not only to receive, but also to offer God's gracious acceptance to others beyond the church.	I seek to relate to others both in the church and beyond in ways that reflect God's hospitality to me.	I intentionally seek to build relationships with unchurched people in order to share God's love.
 A life of Presence	I am getting to know people in the church, but I don't yet have many deep relationships with others.	I join together in groups for short-term studies that interest me.	I meet regularly with a group of my peers for support, encouragement, prayer and study.	I am a committed member of a study or accountability group and willingly lead the group when needed.
 A life informed by Scripture	I occasionally try reading the Bible, but it is difficult to understand.	I understand more about Jesus' teaching through classes and my own study.	I read the bible often and sometimes the Spirit seems to speak to me.	I regularly read the Bible and respond obediently as the Spirit speaks to me.
 A life guided by Prayer	I pray to God when I am concerned or in distress.	I am developing a regular practice of prayer, Scripture reading, and devotional reading	I am taking responsibility for my own growth through the daily practices of spiritual disciplines.	I seek to be open to God's voice and blessings in all aspects of my life.
 A life of Outreach	I am learning more and more about the transformation that Christ is bringing into my life.	I am seeing how God can heal the hurts and fill the needs of those around me.	I am comfortable inviting friends and acquaintances to attend church events with me.	I share my story of God's work of grace in my life and invite others into a relationship with Christ.
 A life of Service	I am often amazed at the way some disciples selflessly serve others and I want to make a difference as well.	I know Christ invites me to join him in serving others and I'm wondering how I can do this.	I experiment serving in different areas as I discover my gifts, talents and passions.	I join Jesus in mission to others using my God-given gifts, talents & passions.
 A life of Generosity	I give some when I attend worship	I am giving more and giving more regularly and generously.	I am tithing and reconsidering how I spend the other 90%.	I am tithing and consciously reordering my life to free up more resources to honor God and bless others.
